Dear White City Councillors,

My name is Patrick Maze and I am your NDP candidate for the November 7th Provincial Election. I was born and raised in Regina, and currently live with my family on a 320 acre farm five miles north of White City in the riding of Regina Wascana Plains. My wife Belynda works as a constable with Regina Police Service. We have four children between the ages of 8 and 17.

I have worked as a head referee in the Western Hockey League and a level 6 official with the Canadian Hockey Association. In 1996 I represented Canada as a head referee at the South Korean national hockey championships in Seoul, South Korea.

I am currently the President of the Regina Public School Teachers' Association. I have been a teacher in Regina for 15 years, gaining experience in community schools and First Nations and Métis education.

I believe you and the residents of White City who you serve, deserve effective representation. I look forward to meeting you on Monday evening!

Sincerely,

Pat Maze
